Crab Orchard.

Joe Shelby, of Louisville, is a guest at the Springs Hotel.

There will be a strawberry, cake and ice cream social on the evening of the 9th, Thursday, given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church.

A large tent has been erected in town on the corner lot where the old brick hotel stood a number of years ago, and the revival began in it Wednesday evening.

Decoration Day was observed here by the closing of the bank. The G. A. R. was out in full force, despite the inclement weather. A long procession headed by the band marched to the cemetery and decorated the graves of the soldiers who are buried there.

Chas. Spelgle, of Shelbyville, Ind., J. F. Holdam and Dr. Doores have gone to Cumberland county in the interest of some oil wells. Mrs. Polly Miller, of Winfield, Kansas, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Egland, are with Mrs. Brooks. She will have a handsome stone put at the grave of her husband, the late Geo. W. Miller. Messdames I. Herrin and Vic Owens, of Stanford, visited relatives here. Mr. Belden and daughter, Miss Bertha, are visiting relatives in Casey. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Edmiston are rejoicing over the arrival of a little son. Miss Ila Holdam is improving slowly. Mrs. Payne remains in a very critical condition. Mrs. Walter Gover is better.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Morris spent Decoration Day with relatives at Junction City. Mr. Maurice Perkins accompanied them. Messrs. Alex. Beazley and A. H. Bastin spent Sunday in Crab Orchard. Crab Orchard is loth to see such clever citizens as Dr. Phillips and family leave for their home in Tennessee. Mrs. M. E. Fish and grand-daughter, Ida Rhinehart, of London, are at the King Hotel. Mrs. Luther Smith and handsome little son were here from Mt. Vernon last week. R. H. Bronaugh has returned from the races at Latonia. Miss Eliza Hays, daughter of Mr. Jim Hays, is quite ill at her home in the country. Miss Lillian Garner returned recently from a visit to relatives at McKinney.

HOW TO PRONOUNCE HYOMEI!

Penny tells of this remarkable treatment that cures catarrh without stomach dosing.

"While all his customers who have used Hyomei agree that it is remarkably successful in curing catarrh and other diseases of the air passages," says Mr. Penny, "yet there has been considerable diversity of opinion as to how the name is pronounced."

"Hyomei is pronounced just as if it were spelled 'high-o-me,' with the accent on the first syllable."

"A great many come to his store and instead of asking for Hyomei, tell him they want a package of the treatment for catarrh that he is selling on a guarantee."

"While he knows what they mean, and all of his clerks will give them Hyomei, yet he wants every one to know how to pronounce the name of Hyomei, so that they may run no chance of getting anything but Hyomei, no matter where they go."

"It is nature's true cure for catarrhal troubles. It kills the germs of this disease, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane, and effectually drives all catarrhal poisons from the system."

"All the stomach dosing in the world can do no lasting good in the treatment of catarrh unless the nose and throat are free from catarrhal microbes. There is no stomach dosing with Hyomei; just breathe it."

"He has so much confidence in the value of the treatment that he is selling it with the understanding that he will return the money if it fails to cure. All INTERIOR JOURNAL readers know that he does exactly as he agrees."

Dr. H. J. Williams, of Chilhowee, Kan., is believed to have perished in the Iroquois Theater fire, but no direct proof could be obtained, so to make her position doubly secure his wife has got a divorce from him for desertion and had her maiden name restored. Now, if the proper man comes along, there will be no danger of No. 1 turning up, Enoch Ardenlike, to disturb the repose of her and No. 2.

That Throbbing Headache.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25 cents, money back if not cured. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

An English watchmaker has just finished making a tiny watch in the form of a shirt stud. Its dial is two-tenths of an inch in diameter, and it is to be worn with two other studs. By turning the upper stud you wind the watch, while by turning the lower one the hands are adjusted.

WAYNESBURG.

Decoration services were held at the old Double Springs Cemetery on the 30th. The address was made by Rev. W. R. Davidson.

Dennie and Lela Gooch were visiting the family of W. R. Gooch in Somerset. Mrs. Millard Kidd, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned to her home in Gurdau, Ill. Misses Maggie and Bertha Singleton were here from Kingsville, also Mrs. Marion Williams and Miss Dora Gooch.

Mrs. Cicero Bastin is very ill with heart trouble. G. T. Gooch and Fred Curtis were here from Somerset. J. B. Gooch and Supt. Singleton, of Stanford, were here Monday. Palestine Gooch is very ill with paralysis. Mrs. M. D. McKenzie, who has been sick, is recovering. Miss Birdie Gooch is with relatives here. Major Reynolds and wife, of McKinney, were visiting here. W. D. Gooch has returned home after several weeks' visit to relatives in Somerset. Misses Julia Record and Laura Horton were visiting at Cumberland Falls. Wm. Dobbs and wife, of Somerset, came up for decoration services and to see home folks. Rev. E. Bright, of Science Hill, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Hundley. After several days' illness John Orcutt is able to be out again. Arnold Singleton is at home after several years' stay in California. John Camden is visiting the family of S. H. Gooch.

THE CONFEDERATE BAND.

They sleep in fields of battle,
Or village churchyards old,
Where buttercups embroider
The mossy mounds with gold.
Their coats of gray have mouldered,
Their swords have gone to rust,
And daisy sprinkled grasses
Are green above their dust.

The quarrel is forgotten
So long and long ago,
That from their ashes springing,
Great oaks their branches throw.
But while the Mississippi
Toward the ocean runs,
The South, a loving mother,
Will mourn her gallant sons.

But, while she sits entwining
The sweet magnolia's bloom
And melancholy cypress
To deck each soldier tomb,
From miles of fragrant orchards
The North extends a spray
Of dewy apple blossoms,
The rosy crown of May.

For far beyond New England,
Her granite and her grain,
And Dixie's corn and cotton,
Above the sun and rain
The blue and gray together
In peace eternal tread
The azure plains where musters
The army of the dead.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be moved entirely bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by W. N. Craig.

The Mexican maguery tree furnishes a needle and thread already for use. At the tip of each dark green leaf is a slender, thorn needle that must be carefully drawn from its sheath; at the same time it slowly unwinds the thread, a strong, smooth fiber attached to the needle, and capable of being drawn out to a great length.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonsville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by Penny, Druggist. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c and $1.

Mayor Robert M. McLane, of Baltimore, shot and killed himself in his bed room. He had been married only two weeks. Mayor McLane had been hard worked since the fire, and this, with criticism by his political opponents, is believed to have caused temporary insanity.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. Reasons why a tin roof, not a sheet iron, is the best roof made:

1st. It will last three times as long as the best shingle and will cost very little more.

2nd. It will conduct lightning as good as any lightning rod, if the gutter is connected to a tile, with down spout.

3rd. There is 50 per cent. less danger of fire and it will reduce the insurance enough to pay the difference between it and a cheap roof.

If there is one thing that Tammany or its leaders do not like it is to be "bossed" or to be told to do something they do not want to do. It is suggested by Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, that the members of the organization who are delegates to the St. Louis convention, will obey the instructions given them by the New York state convention and vote for Judge Parker for president, but, he declares, that action will follow only after the convention has been "solemnly warned" that Judge Parker can not carry the state of New York against Roosevelt. From this one would imagine that while the Tammany men will vote for Judge Parker at the convention, that if he be nominated they will not vote for him at the general election, but will assist in his defeat. This has a semblance of party treason. In any event it is a curious manner of obeying instructions. If the Tammany delegates do not want to vote for Judge Parker, even after being instructed to do so, they could have resigned their credentials and the office and allowed some other democrats to go who are in sympathy with Judge Parker.

GOOD news comes from Madison, Garrard and Rockcastle concerning Hon. Harvey Helm's race for Congress. Letters from prominent democrats in those counties state that he will carry them beyond doubt. Mr. Helm is making an active, but dignified canvass, and the prospects of his representing the grand old Eighth district in Congress grow brighter and better as the convention draws nearer. He is the logical candidate and there is every reason why he should have the nomination.

POLITICAL.

The headquarters of the National Republican Committee will be transferred this week from Washington to Chicago. The split in republican ranks in West Virginia is growing wider and promises to end in a bolt by the Teter faction and the nomination of Dawson for Governor.

By a vote of 1662 to 1571, the Georgia democratic convention instructed its delegates to the National convention to vote for Parker.

The republicans, who are now in control of the Baltimore city government, will have a public improvement fund of $10,000,000 to spend.

The Hearst men were defeated in the Michigan Democratic convention and an unopposed delegation will go to St. Louis to vote as a unit.

Gov. Odell, of New York, is in Paris, and it is believed he will endeavor to induce Ambassador Porter to accept the Republican nomination for Governor of New York.

Congressman Joseph C. Sibley, of Pennsylvania, has announced through personal friends his candidacy for the United States Senate to succeed the late Matthew Stanley Quay.

The statement of the public debt of the government for the month of May shows an increase of $56,447,576, due to the Panama canal and World's Fair loan payments, which is also shown in the excess of government expenditures over the receipts.

The Nebraska democratic convention at Omaha elected W. J. Bryan, C. J. Smyth, W. B. Thompson and Walter Phillips delegates-at large to the National convention. The delegates are to vote as a unit. A resolution pledging the Nebraska democracy to support the nominee was ruled out of order by the chairman.

The Picket in Moving Pictures.

Those who saw The Picket defeat his field in the Brooklyn Handicap will soon be able to follow him to the paddock and witness the cooling-out and rubbing down process there, for the moving picture man was on hand to get a view of this very interesting process, says a New York paper.

After the race The Picket was taken to the outside paddock, where the grass was green and soft and the sun shone brightly. Here he was surrounded by a multitude, who, before the race had eyes only for the stars among the Eastern starters. Carroll Reid was there, wearing a smile guaranteed not to come off for the remainder of the afternoon at least.

Came the moving picture artist with his machine, and with a gangway between two walls of humanity, the machine started grinding out the films that will reproduce the scene. The Picket, with the air of a monarch, was prancing around while the "swipes" were going over him with "rub rags."

"Just turn his head a little this way and show him at his best," Reid said to the attendant. "This is a picture of a champion they are taking, and he must show to the best advantage."

Snap! went the picture machine, indicating that its work was done, and almost simultaneously a blanket was thrown over The Picket, and he was led away, followed by an admiring crowd.

"There he goes, the best horse in America," said Mr. Reid, as he turned to receive the congratulations of Earl Jungbluth, one of the owners of the horse. "They thought I was shooting too high with him, but that little horse made good."

The Monticello Outlook says: "Rev. Donald McDonald, of Danville, Rev. Dr. Glaes, of Somerset, and probably Rev. J. M. Worrall, of Danville, will assist Rev. H. C. Rainey in the dedication exercises at the Presbyterian church, June 5th."

In the Christian church, the first Sunday in June is set apart as "Children's Day," the purpose being to develop the child in christian activity, to enlist his interest in the supreme work of the church, to inform him along this line and through him, reach the ear and heart of some older in the Master's service. In accord with this custom, the children of the Sunday school will have charge of the service on Sunday night at the Christian church. Everyone is very cordially invited to be present.

Take Me Back To Old Kentucky.

Fugitive W. S. Taylor is said to have addressed the appending touching political effusion to Gov. Durbin, of Indiana:

Take me back to old Kentucky
Where the crystal waters glist
As they dance along their borders,
Thro' their fragrant beds of milt;
Where the lasses and the horses
Are but terms of grace and speed,
And the whiskey and the statesmen
Both are noted for their "bead."

Take me back to old Kentucky,
Where strong waters flow so free,
Where they cool off in the summer
'Neath spreading julp tree;
Where the highballs and the lowballs
Always hit the centre square,
And you never have next morning
Rheumatism in your hair.

Take me back to old Kentucky,
Where the bluegrass decks the hills,
Where they have no use for water
Save for operating mills;
For they scorn it as a beverage
On that dark and bloody ground,
As they claim, e'er since the deluge,
That it tastes of sinners drowned.

Take me back to old Kentucky,
To the State where I was born,
Where the corn is full of kernels
And the colicols full of corn;
Where to disapprove that beverage
Is to toy with certain death,
And they have a bonded warehouse
Where they barrel up their breath.

Take me back to old Kentucky,
Let me hear the rifle pop;
See the pigs and politicians
With their scouts eye deep in slop.
Take me back to her blue mountains
Where they argue points with lead,
But you need not rush the matter,
Take me back when I am dead.

PRUITT BROS.,
UNDERTAKERS AND FURNITURE DEALERS
LIVERY IN CONNECTION,
MORELAND, KY.

PRESTON, NO. 922.

This premium saddle stallion of the world will make the season of 1904 at the stable of J. C. Bailey, on Old Lancaster Street, in Stanford, Ky.

Preston is a brown horse, 12 years old, 15 1/2 hands high, a perfect model, with great style, action and speed.

Preston was sired by Washington No. 54, he by Cromwell No. 73, 1st dam Belle by Roderick; 2nd dam by a Denmark horse.

Preston has shown against and defeated all the great show horses of Kentucky, such as Kentucky Artist, owned by J. T. Crenshaw, of Lexington, Ky., and Montgomery Chief, owned by Ball Bros. Why you should breed to Preston

1 Because he is the greatest show horse Kentucky ever produced

2 Because he is siring great show horses, such as Electra that was sold to Senator Vane for $2,000; Rebecca, that sold at New York Exchange to George Watson for $650; Miss Henrietta, owned by Gay Bros., that won more premiums in saddle and combined rings than any three-year-old out in 1903; a yearling colt sold to J. C. Cravins, of Illinois, for $500.

3 Because he is the only saddle stallion that ever sired a team of harness geldings that sold for $5,000

4 Because he won the championship of the Louisville Horse Show in 1903, shown by Matt S. Cohen, of Richmond, Ky.

5 Because he has won more money in the show ring than any other saddle stallion in Kentucky.

6 I will be glad to show him to any one at my stable and invite those wishing to breed to a fine saddle stallion to see him before breeding. I will stand him at $10 the season or $15 to insure a living colt

SHOT HIS SWEETHEART.—Farris Helm, colored, is in jail awaiting his trial Saturday for shooting his sweetheart, a daughter of a Negro named John Lee. The wound is not a serious one, but that is no fault of Helm who fired five times at her. Jealousy is supposed to have caused him to want to kill the woman.

BELIEVING that merit and faithfulness deserve recognition, we publish the following: Ollie Crow Vanhook, in the Preparatory Department of the College, has the highest average, 98, throughout the year. Margaret Hopper, in the Collegiate Department, next to the highest, 97. The work generally has been satisfactorily done, the grades of other pupils very nearly reaching the figures above.

THE graduating exercises of Stanford Female College took place at Walton's Opera House yesterday morning, when the following program was carried out: Vocal Quartette, Morning Invitation, Misses Minnie Sine, Margaret Hopper, Virginia Bourne and Mary Higgins; prayer, Rev. J. W. Hagin; piano solo, Music Box, Poldini, Virginia Bourne; vocal solo, Hearts and Flowers, Miss Minnie Sine; address, Dr. B. J. Pinkerton; piano solo, Hulanka, Chopin, Miss Mary Higgins; vocal solo, A May Morning, Denza, Miss Lynn; presentation of diplomas to Misses Margaret Hopper and Minnie Sine; piano duet, Overture, Weber, Misses Mary Higgins and Virginia Bourne.

On the stage, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion, sat the graduates, Misses Sine and Hopper, Dr. B. J. Pinkerton, Rev. J. W. Hagin, Misses Mattie Paxton and Susan VanArsdale, teachers, and Trustees John Bright, Sr., J. N. Menefee and J. B. Paxton. The graduates were gowned in white and the scenes presented were one of beauty and inspiration. Dr. Pinkerton's address was a masterly one and was listened to with rapt attention. The program above was splendidly rendered and those who took part in it, as well as their instructors, are deserving of hearty congratulations. Misses Alma Hays and Mary Ellen Dudderar acted as ushers and Emma Hays and Annie Steele Cook, as flower girls.

With the exercises of yesterday morning the career of Stanford Female College closed and many of us who have looked with pride on the grand old institution of learning feel sad at the thought of it. It has turned out some of the best women in the State and if, as a school for both males and females, it proves as successful, all will be well.

We desire to express our profound thanks and gratitude to the good people of Lebanon Junction, Stanford and Rowland for their kindness during the illness of our daughter and sister, Mrs. A. F. Haley and children.

THE Little Folks' Recital at Walton's Opera House Tuesday night was a most creditable display of the talent and accomplishment of the junior members of Miss Ellen Ballou's music class. The rain fell in torrents but a fairly good crowd was present and enjoyed the splendid entertainment. The first number, "Buds of Promise," was well rendered by Elizabeth McKinney, Virginia Mahony, James Cooper and Lillian Mueller. "Under the Old Umbrella" was sung with credit by Jas. Cooper and Lucy Lee Walton and then came a piano selection by Mary Shepherd Cook, William O'Bannon, Lucy Lee Walton, Lillian Mueller, Virginia Mahony, Anna D. McRoberts, Berta Jean Penny, violinist. "Dixie" and "Yankee Doodle," always popular melodies, were well rendered on the piano by Josephine Carpenter, Lucy Lee Walton, William O'Bannon, Mary Shepherd Cook, Anna Davis McRoberts, Elizabeth McKinney and Berta Jean Penny on the violin. Miss Penny favored the audience with a whistling solo that was most creditable.

"I'm Little, but Oh My," was cutely sung and acted by Elizabeth Higgins. William O'Bannon, dressed and blacked up for the occasion, sang "I'm the Happiest Little Nigger in Town." Old Kentucky Home by James Cooper, Lillian Mueller, Mary E. McKinney, Josephine Carpenter, piano, and Berta Jean Penny, violinist, was well executed. The pleasing entertainment wound up with the pretty cantata—"Revels of the May Queen," during which the May pole dance was indulged in by dozens of pretty little girls. The following was the cast: Queen, Annie Lewis Gentry; Herald, James Owsley; Spring, Josephine Carpenter; Buttercup, Mary Shepherd Cook; Violet, Sallie Mills Craig; Forget-me-not, Anna D. McRoberts; Pansy, Mary Moore Roney; Fairy Singer, Helen Beasley.

Another highly pleased audience left Walton's Opera House Wednesday night. Miss Ballou's more advanced music pupils rendered a difficult, but most enjoyable program, and if she could have heard the many good things said about her as teacher she would better know how she is appreciated by her patrons and pupils. The first number was the piano selection—Amorita, played by Frances Cooper, Helen Beasley, Mattie McClary, Bessie Yantis. Then came a vocal duet—O That We Two Were Maying, by Misses Minnie Sine and Virginia Bourne. Miss Allie Richards Huffman favored the audience with a piano solo and Miss Mary McRoberts with a vocal solo. The next number was a piano selection by Frances Cooper, Etta Mueller, Lyles Cooper, Ollie Crow Vanhook, Annie Steele Cook, Mary Belle Spoonamore. Berta Jean Penny's violin solo was loudly applauded. Mary McRoberts and Josephine Brady sang a pretty duet and Katie Newland and Ollie Crow Vanhook creditably rendered a piano duet. Mary Higgins and Virginia Bourne, the most advanced pupils, gave a piano selection—Sonata in D, which was much enjoyed. Miss Jennie Lynn sang in sweetest cadence, "Meet Me, Love, Oh Meet Me." The last piano selection was an overture by Virginia Bourne, Mary Higgins, Mary VanArsdale, Kate Waters, Mary McRoberts, Polly Traylor. The Family Album, in which Miss Mary Burch showed pictures of her "sisters and her cousins and her aunts," was a pleasing feature. The curtain fell on the Sleight Bell drill, in which some 20 young girls took part. The snow scene was very realistic.

The closing recital last night was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. A more extended notice will appear next issue.

MACCABEE SUPPER—An ice cream and strawberry supper will be given by the ladies of Kingsville on Saturday night, June 11th. There will be plenty of good music. The public generally is invited. Come, bring your friends and enjoy the evening. The Maccabees.

MOORE—George Moore, aged about 38, died at Crab Orchard Wednesday and was buried yesterday afternoon. He was a son of Mrs. Thomas Moore and brother of Mrs. C. H. Singleton. Mr. Moore was a clever young man and many friends will learn of his death with regret.

THE energetic correspondent of the Louisville Times at Cloyd's Landing, Cumberland county, sends the following dispatch to his paper: "Hon. R. L. Hubble, of Hubble, has announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for State Senator." The way the city papers are gullied is a caution. It isn't more than 100 miles or so from Hubble to Cloyd's Landing.

HELM.—Hon. Harvey Helm, of Lincoln, has been in this county all week, making an active, dignified canvas in the interest of his race for Congress. Mr. Helm's old friends are faithful and loyal to his cause, and his engaging personality and undoubted claims to Madison's votes are making him new admirers and supporters every day. It is impossible to look upon and engage in conversation with "The Tall Sycamore of the St. Asaph," as he has been dubbed, without instinctively becoming aware of the fact that Mr. Helm is a born leader of men and built of the timber of which Congressmen are made. It is hoped and thought that Madison will recognize these qualities by a solid endorsement of Mr. Helm when the county convention meets.—Richmond Register

The marriage of Mr. Peter Muir McRoberts, of this place, to Miss Jean Steele Shelby was celebrated at high noon at Arcadia yesterday. Rev. Cooly, an Episcopal minister of Cincinnati, performed the ceremony. After an elegant breakfast by Glenn, of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. McRoberts left for a short trip. They will return Saturday and take rooms at the St. Asaph Hotel. The magnificent and historic old home was beautifully decorated by Honaker, the Lexington florist. There were no attendants and while the wedding was a quiet affair, it was a most elegant one. The bride is a daughter of Col. Isaac Shelby and is an exceedingly bright and lovable woman. She is highly accomplished and very popular. Mr. McRoberts is one of the leading lawyers of the Stanford bar, an excellent christian gentleman with a legion of friends. He has spent his entire life in Stanford and no man in this community stands higher. Mr. and Mrs. McRoberts were the recipients of many handsome presents, including a silver tea service given by the Stanford bar.
